My boyfriend of almost 13 years proposed to me last year, but we haven't started planning our wedding yet. We've always known that we're not going to go for an all-out grand celebration because we both don't see any point in spending too much on a one-time event. We'd rather spend just the right amount and do it three times over, haha! Anyway, curiosity got the best of me so I got this book. I love this! Full of practical, smart ideas, tips and advice. Not only does this push you to be creative, it also proves that you don't need to spend a lot in order to have a memorable wedding. Very valuable find for any would-be newlyweds!

Weddings are really just magical and really so stressful and fun at the same time. What I love about a wedding is the ability for you to create it as your own. Especially if you're the bride. Now I have heard a lot of wedding DIYs and how you can make it your own as well. So I grabbed this book. I am so impressed with the amount of info that I have in this book! Really love the concept and the tips that Riva has indicated in this book. I would say it's really fun that the book has a lot to offer.

I have learned a lot of unique but inexpensive ways to turn everything into a magical wedding. The cubic zirconia is the best, lovely, elegant and inexpensive ring to get. Horses instead of a car is more romantic. It's like going back in time. My imagination is flowing with excitement on the future wedding. I can't wait to plan everything with my fiancé.

My sister is preparing for her wedding in two months and this book was a very helpful guide for her. It covered many aspects like how to invite guests, what to wear, and the food to be served. We also had some great ideas that would help us to have some fun in the wedding. And it kept her from turning into Bridezilla... for now anyway.
