Customer Reviews

My daughter asked me to order this collection. The arrangements are very nicely done.....and it's all the latest hits that today's young kids are listening to. She took it to her piano teacher and the teacher was impressed and said she was going to recommend that her other students that are looking for "current" tunes should get this book.

I am a piano teacher in Wellington NZ. I chose this book because of the tunes available. The students have responded well to it. Good comments have come from my teenage students and a lot of my students have purchased a copy. I also like the tunes selected so teacher and students are enjoying the material. From a teaching point of view the books are well arranged with manageable parts and playable keys. I have created playlists for them to listen to because I believe listening is a huge part in learning music. It really helps with the phrasing and those with a good ear can add to the arrangements if desired using the chords provided. This was the best of the three books I sent for that day. So I gave it the highest rating.

Okay, I admit it. I'm old. I have young piano students who want to play the latest hits. This book is perfect for the intermediate student who is middle-school age.

My daughter is in her 6th year of piano lessons (15 years old) and she opened this book and started playing since day 1 and has not stopped.

My 12 year old son has been in piano for a year and this is a little to advanced for him. Love the song selection. Great price and product. Hopefully he will be able to play something out of the book soon.

My piano students wanted some contemporary music so I bought this book to supplement their lesson books. Arranged nicely for the intermediate player. A bit much for a beginner, but great for those who can read music and want a little challenge. Plus, the kids enjoy learning songs they love and this book has a nice selection.

It is easy enough for 10 yrs and up. It contains a few popular songs, but it is written all in the same "model" right hands plays the melody that is sung, and left hand plays chords. I would have liked to see more of a piano accompaniment style ..

My sister asked for "fun" piano music for Christmas. So I bought her this, and she was thrilled. I can't comment on how easy the music really is since I don't play, but I can say without a doubt my sister LOVED this book.
