Customer Reviews

I'm pleased with the music. I'm out of practice, so this is the hardest thing I've ever played. It's got lots of changing keys, hands going in different directions with different timing, and a few changes in time signature. This music is not simplified or arranged; it is as Freddie Mercury wrote it. It's my new goal music, so I'll be working on it for awhile. Good luck with it.

It's about as close as you can get to the real thing. Music is intermediate to play but overall anyone can play it. When Mercury plays this song on the piano he plays it similar to this sheet music, but not quite.

If you watch videos of this song being played or the official music video, you will see that Freddie Mercury plays it differently than is transcribed (his hand cross-overs are the main difference). Also, there is a section of the song that is omitted from the transcription. You can easily figure out what it is (repetition of an earlier phrase) but it isn't notated in the music transcription. That's just sloppy proofing. But, other than that one error and the issues with methods, it is a very good transcription. Play it exactly as written here and it will sound perfect to nearly everyone.

It has some variations to the original. But it does the job, if you are amongst musicians it is noticeable, but hey, maybe someone can teach you the right variations.

I love the original orchestral version and although the piano version will never be the same, this is as near as can be reached.
