Customer Reviews

That pretty much sums up how the book felt to read. Mr. Rayner's voice and personality are captured in this short but very useful book. I have been frustrated at every attempt I tried to draw. This book felt like a friend was at my side to help. I only wished that it were longer. A great book for the beginner. Check out his YouTube channel and you will better understand.

Shoo Rayner is a really neat and positive person. One of the good ones that makes art fun. And gives in this book great inspiration to draw and just not taking ourselves too seriously.

His youtube videos are great too. I bought this basically to support him and to have something on kindle for on-the-go goodness.

Easy to read and helped me decide to try testing myself to find out if I have any art abilities as a new hobby.
