Customer Reviews

It is just now that I heard of affiliate marketing and I guess this book is the right choice that would provide me the beginner's information I needed. I like that the author also captured in his book those fraudulent businesses or considered as affiliate marketing scams. I particularly like this book because it offers pros and cons of involving in affiliate marketing plus there is a bonus being offered by the author at the back of the pages.

I really want to learn Affiliate Marketing. I find that this book will help me how to become a successful affiliate marketer. It enhances my knowledge on the basic processes in order for me to generate income as well. This book is a complete guide for beginners who want to earn money through affiliate marketing. The author provides tips and strategies that is very effective. Great read!

Great book! The book starts from the beginning from the development of affiliate marketing and takes us through the different roles and lingos of affiliate marketing, Being a newbie to affiliate marketing I had no idea where to start but upon reading the book I feel motivated and knowledgeable in all the steps and strategies to being a successful affiliate marketer.
