Customer Reviews

For $2, this ebook and the second volume, Hasui Kawase Complete works 2 (Japanese Edition) are a must for any Hasui enthusiast. It is by no means complete, with newer Hasui compendiums including a handful of new prints and even the newer books missing a few others, but it's a great start and gives you a pretty good look into Hasui's broad body of work. The colors, as seen on a kindle Fire 7 HDX (the best screen you're going to get), are slightly washed out and lack the good texture you get from a real book. Both volumes are in Japanese and oriented right to left and vertically, so browsing takes some getting used to on the kindle app. The index is also in Japanese, so it really is a book to browse through on a rainy afternoon unless you can read Japanese. I think it's mostly chronologically organized, but I remember finding a few out of order based on the printer seals. If you're looking at all, just go ahead and grab Volumes 1 and 2, more books never hurt.

Great Book, all the text is in Japanese but about half of the book is color scans of the prints. You can get a sample sent to your Kindle which should have a few of the prints in it to verify (at least mine did.) Well worth the price as is volume 2 which also includes images.

outstanding copies of the art
