Your Will The heart of every estate plan is a will, also known as a last will and testament. This legal document puts you in control of who inherits your property and who would assume guardianship of your children if it were ever necessary. Without a will, state law will determine these issues. Your will allows you to name an executor (a personal representative) whose job it is to see that your wishes are carried out. And you can appoint a trusted person to manage property left to young people. With Quicken WillMaker Plus 2016, you can revise and update your will whenever you like.

Your Health Care Directive Spares your loved ones difficult decisions by laying out your wishes for medical care and naming someone to carry those wishes. Health Care Power of Attorney. Permit a loved one to make important medical decisions for you Living Will. Specify whether you want your life prolonged through artificial means in certain circumstances and set out your wishes about specific medical treatments and procedures. Your Final Arrangements Plan a funeral or other ceremony and ease the burden on your loved ones. Describe your preferences for burial, cremation, memorials, obituaries, and more, and select someone to oversee your final arrangements. Letter to Survivors Use this letter to leave a final message to your loved ones. You can explain the gifts you left in your will, leave advice, divulge secrets, suggest ways of spitting shared gifts, or any other thoughts you'd like to leave behind. Documents for Your Executor Provide your executor with needed instructions, checklists, letters, notices, claim forms and more. Information for Caregivers and Survivors Organize your estate so that your survivors don't have to. Use these documents to give them information about everything from bank accounts to the names of people you'd like contacted in the event of your illness or death. Personal Finance Documents Over a dozen forms let you handle common financial situations, such as lending money to friends or family, creating a bill of sale, and closing a credit card account. Home & Family Documents Practical forms you can use every day to help run your home and keep your family safe, including authorizations and agreements, promissory notes, limited powers of attorney, and child and elder care forms. * Estate planning documents not valid in Louisiana or U.S. Territories. Just the fact that you are CONSIDERING the fact that a will MAY BE A NECESSITY, listen to do professionals who explain what happens to entities like Prince who did not happen to have a will... link provided in the comment section. Estate planning documents are not valid in Canada, Louisiana or U.S. Territories. They claimed they did not but apparently they do now offer a free one year subscription to Nolo's Online Living Trust which will keep your program current through 2016 but then they will come up with 2017 version just like they do every year. WillMaker is one software that gets updated every year and regardless of the packaging that the software is sold, regardless of the box or the books that it comes in the packaging, the concept is the same, since it is the same software sold in all the packages for that particular year. It is the extras that you are paying for which are books that in most cases it is not a necessity at all. What is different between packaging is the yearly subscription, computer operating system and the additional items sold with the packaging. WillMaker is not a complete software for creating a trust which is for individuals with real estate holdings. For any entity with no real estate holdings it is a complete, very complete, easy and helpful software to use, worthy of every single penny that you pay for. There are three scenarios to a human life when it comes to authority since that is what this software does, designates authority. When 1) one is alive and can speak for themselves but choose not to since either they are not available or simply do not want to, 2) when one is alive but can not speak for themselves even if they wish to, 3) when one is dead. Durable Power of Attorney covers scenario ONE.
