Customer Reviews

This is a well-done summary and analysis of Darren Hardy's The Compound Effect that Instaread has created. Instaread is the perfect name for these reviews because with them you are indeed able to instantly understand the topics within the books they analyse. It's a quick read that is written very well without any typos or blunders which indicate good editing. All the information you need to know about Hardy's book is included in this review. It starts out with an unbiased summary of the that provides you with a clear understanding of what The Compound Effect is about. This is followed by a short description of the notable people of the book. The key takeaways of the book are listed and then you are provided with a comprehensive analysis of each of those important points. This really enables you to fully appreciate the message of Hardy's book. The summary concludes with a concise outline of the author's writing style and perspective as well as references. This is a very helpful resource to have at one's disposal and I really recommend it.

As other reviewers have said, this is a great time saver and a great book to pick up if you want to know the information in The Compound Effect but lack the time to read through the original book. Eureka Books basically breaks everything down for you into key concepts that you MUST know (titled "key takeaways"), which are accompanied by analyses that will get you thinking as well. I highly recommend these books by Eureka Books as they are tremendously helpful!

This is a GREAT book if your a business owner or not, this book will help you in life to take control of what ever your going through, or need to go change, be that weight lose, to stop smoking, improve your way of life, what ever you want to improve on or need help with in life.. Darren Hardy is a multi millionaire, that can show you how simple it can be to change your way of thinking, A small change now will effect how things can turn out for the better down your life's road. I suggest this reading for any one and everyone that wants to improve their life.

I'm not sure where the writer got some of the key takeaway points. They don't seem to be drawn from the actual book.
